You must repay all payments we are required to make under the legal provisions governing compulsory insurance of liability to employees, which we would not have been liable to pay under this section of the policy in the absence of such law.

Please read the policy for details of its terms in full.

Your obligations

Remember, the premium and insurance cover will be based specifically on the details provided to us. Please make sure this information accurately reflects your business and that you inform us immediately if anything needs to change. Please also tell us of any changes in circumstances that may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by the policy. This is particularly important before taking out a policy, but it also applies throughout the life of the policy too.

You need to consider:

- if you fail to fairly present the risk to us, including by failing to disclose any information material to the insurance, you could invalidate the policy or claims may not be paid;
- you should read and check all insurance documents to ensure that you are aware of the cover, limits and other terms that apply;
- if you fail to let us know of any changes to your circumstances during the period of insurance or, if when telling us about such changes you fail to present the risk to us fairly, you could invalidate the policy or claims may not be paid;
- please be aware of all terms and conditions of the policy as failure to comply with them could invalidate it or result in us not paying a claim or reducing the amount we pay;
- in the event of a claim, you should take note of the required procedures, such as giving Hiscox prompt notice of the claims, as stated in the policy documentation. In particular, if you fail to notify us when you first become aware of a shortcoming, fact, or problem, admit you are liable for what has happened or appoint solicitors or other legal representation without our prior written approval, claims or defence costs may not be paid or the amount we pay may be reduced;
- as with any insurance, you have an obligation to take reasonable steps to mitigate any loss or liability;
- if you make a fraudulent claim or try to deceive us, we may terminate the policy.

Policy length

The policy is a continuous policy which means that cover will continue as long as all premium payments are kept up-to-date on your behalf.

Retroactive dates, geographical and jurisdiction limits

Where any section of the policy schedule includes a retroactive date, we will not make any payment for any claim or loss under that section which arises from any activity performed or any act, incident or occurrence taking place, before the retroactive date.

Where any section of the policy schedule shows the geographical limits which apply to that section of the policy, we will only pay for claims and losses under that section which arise from activities performed or acts, incidents or occurrences taking place within those geographical limits.

Where any section provides cover in respect of your liability to third parties, we will only cover claims first made in a country within the applicable courts stated in that section of the policy schedule.

Cancellation rights

If you no longer wish to be insured under this policy you must notify the main policyholder named above in writing. We may cancel the insurance by giving the main policyholder named above 30 days' notice in writing of our intention to do so.

We will return any amount of premium already paid which relates to the unexpired period to the main policyholder, however we will not refund any premium under £25.

In the event of a claim

If anything happens that might be covered under the policy, you must comply with the obligations set out in General claims conditions within the General terms and conditions, together with the obligations set out under Your obligations in the section or sections under which you are making the claim. It is particularly important that you notify us of the incident or event giving rise to the claim in accordance with the notification provisions set out in the relevant section of the policy. If someone brings or threatens to bring a claim against you, you must not make any admission of liability or make any offer of settlement or appoint solicitors or other legal representation without our prior written agreement.

If you do not comply with these obligations, we may be entitled to refuse to cover you entirely, or reduce the amount we pay, for that particular claim. As with any insurance, you have an obligation to take reasonable steps to mitigate any loss or liability.

In the event of a claim, you must bear the amount of the corresponding excess stated on the policy schedule, if applicable.
